Important Information

Code of Practice

Australian Unity supports the General Insurance Code of Practice. This means we;

- set down standards of service;
- set out the terms of your policy in plain language and assist you in understanding your rights and obligations;
- work with you in a helpful and informed relationship;
- explain to you how to make a claim; and
- in the case of a dispute, provide a free and fair dispute resolution process.

Dispute Resolution

Australian Unity takes complaints about any aspect of our service very seriously. We are proud of our staff and our service, so if you're unhappy, we want to help. To achieve this, we offer an internal dispute resolution service which is both fair and free of charge.

If you have a complaint, please talk it over with one of our staff. Our General Insurance staff have specialist general insurance knowledge, and will listen to your concerns and suggest the most appropriate course of action.

If they can't sort out the problem to your satisfaction, your complaint will be referred at which point, most issues will be resolved.

Should you still not be satisfied, Australian Unity's Internal Disputes Committee will completely review your complaint and may ask you to attend a formal conciliation meeting. A final decision will be made within 15 working days.

In the event that you wish to take the matter further, you can contact the independent industry body, Insurance Ombudsman Service Limited (IOS) on 1300 780 808. IOS is responsible for the Code of Practice, and also runs a free review service which can make a formal decision on the dispute.

Admission of Liability

The issue of this form is not an admission of liability on part of Australian Unity General Insurance Limited.
